

Upper 3 imaginary jungles

This term Upper 3 have been exploring the work of Amber Davenport and creating their own imaginary jungle. Davenport is a contemporary illustrator whose lively, vibrant work has given the pupils inspiration for their own illustrated environments. The pupils have learnt how to simplify forms and use patterns to create their own stylized versions of a jungle scene. They have also developed their ability to apply tone and sketch with accuracy, leading to some very impressive lions and tigers!

Mrs Catherine Fairclough