

World Book Day reading dens

As part of celebrating World Book Day, children in Lower 1 spent some time yesterday building a reading den and getting cosy with their favourite cuddly toy and reading book to share stories together. They each reviewed their favourite book, sharing reasons for recommendations and then enjoyed some peace and quiet in their dens reading their chosen story. The children absolutely loved sharing their books with each other and having some time to get comfy in the classroom.

Miss Beth Adamson