

Orienteering in the sunshine

Geographers in Upper 3 and Lower 4 made the most of the beautiful, expansive school site and the good weather. Working in allocated groups, pupils interpreted aerial photographs of the site and hunted down clues. After they had all the clues they solved an anagram and cracked a code to be crowned winners. We look forward to more opportunities to apply geographical skills outdoors in the next few weeks.

Mrs Colette McDermott