

Lower 5 Art – natural forms

Lower 5 Art have been developing their drawing skills, learning the gridding up method to create an accurate, observational drawing. They have experimented with tonal range using shading pencils to create hyper realistic 3D effects to their work, by juxtaposing the highlights with the shadows. They have then gone on further to experiment in other materials and have been exploring presentation skills for their sketchbooks.

Miss Della Jordinson