

Upper 3 get the toys out

In Upper 3 physics lessons the pupils have been learning about different forms of energy. This week, they enjoyed investigating the energy transfers that take place in different toys and small appliances.

Some examples they studied were the transfer of chemical energy to light energy in a torch, elastic potential energy to kinetic and sound energy in a child's wind-up toy and gravitational potential energy to kinetic energy in a bouncy ball.

Mrs Sophie King