

Upper 4 pupils start their GCSE science course

Pupils in Upper 4 have made a great start to their studies in GCSE science this half term. In their physics lessons they have been learning how to calculate kinetic and gravitational potential energy. Their problem solving skills have really been tested and this week they were able to apply their new skills to a scientific investigation. The challenge was to determine which, out of four types of ball, was the most efficient bouncer.

Miss Kim Ashurst