

Lower 4 investigate the murder of Danny Bailey in drama

The PAC has been transported to downtown Chicago during the early 1930s in Lower 4 drama lessons. Pupils found out that Danny Bailey, a well-known gangster was murdered on the morning of July 18th 1934. Lower 4 are the investigative journalists who need to help Detective Brown solve the case. As journalists they have many links to people in Chicago and so they have been asked to help with the case.

Pupils need to consider how to change their body language, facial expression, and vocal expression in order to take on the roles of investigative journalists, as well as a variety of other characters.

Will they be able to solve the murder of Danny Bailey?
