

Investigating dissolving

Lower 4 used their investigative skills to look at the different factors that affect how fast sugar dissolves in water. They could choose their own variable to investigate. Some chose different temperatures of water, others the surface area of the sugar using granulated and sugar cubes, others the effect of stirring. They all had fun testing out their theories.

Mrs Lesley Wood