

Lower 4 use Desmos

Lower 4 have been drawing straight line graphs and quadratic graphs in their mathematics lessons. They have been using Desmos which provides a free online graphing calculator; this enables pupils to draw accurate graphs very quickly so they can develop an understanding of the relationship between an equation and its graph. Lower 4 have enjoyed using this tool and investigating the difference between linear and quadratic functions. Do you know which two functions are represented in this picture?

Mrs Nicola Kelly