

Lower 4 pupils learn how to make their circuit drawings come to life!

This term Lower 4 pupils have been learning about electricity. They have been challenged to draw and create electrical circuits within their teams. The competition presented by Lower 4 pupils has been fierce as their circuit building skills are becoming very impressive.

The competition continues until the end of the term until we crown a winner.

Mr Ali Bahcaci