

Lower 6 art – personal investigations

Lower 6 have started their personal investigations into a subject matter of their choice. Their topics range from architecture in Leeds to portraiture, to extinction of animals. Each student is developing their ideas, through exploring the works of artists they have discovered, using a variety of materials to experiment with.

In art we love to see students working independently and feel the freedom they get with their work, enables them to flourish in their creative endeavours.

Mrs Della Harrison