

Upper 5 triple science pupils investigate transformers

Upper 5 pupils have been studying the topic of electromagnetism. Last week they built a transformer and proved that it would only work if supplied with an alternating current. They investigated the effect of changing the number of coils in the primary circuit and the secondary circuit and worked out how to make a step-up and a step-down transformer.

Miss Kim Ashurst