

Grouping living things

The start of a new term begins a new topic in science for Lower 2 – ‘Living things and their habitats’. This week pupils have started to understand how they can group living things together and the differences between living organisms which has generated lots of great discussions in class.

Mr Charlie Grasby and Mr Mike Arnold