

Prep's first art competition

Lower 1 have been learning different shading techniques and how we can vary pencil pressure to create different tones. They have practised in lots of different ways and recently attempted a still life drawing to apply their skills.

They then used some coloured pencils to colour in a still life image to demonstrate the same skills in colour. They have produced some beautiful work and we are very impressed with the care and focus they applied to their work.

Miss Beth Adamson