

Upper 3 geographers revise through play

The Upper 3 geographers have been playing a board game in class this week. The aim of the game is to revise the map skills they have developed in their most recent unit. Pupils answered questions on grid references, Ordnance Survey map symbols and direction.

They tell me they enjoyed the activity and that the lesson flew by.

Above you can see pupils from Upper 3M participating in the game.

Mrs Colette McDermott