

Lower 2 English

In English we have been reading the book 'The Firework Maker's Daughter' the children used all the techniques they have learnt over the year such as: onomatopoeia, similes, alliteration and exclamation sentences. They used these to describe and then create a new firework which they then presented to the class.

Super work Lower 2!

Miss Melissa Avison