

Jungle inspired cushions

In textiles, Upper 3 have been creating cushions inspired by the work of artist Amber Davenport. They have looked at the variety of different shaped jungle leaves and how machine and hand sewing can create mark making effects similar to the work of Amber.

Some of the creative design ideas can be seen in the photographs of the still to be finished cushion covers.

Mrs Sara Holmes