

La Calle de Intriga: Lower 5's own soap opera in Spanish

Our Spanish teacher, Mrs. Wilson, wrote some creative and slightly crazy soap opera character descriptions when she wrote part of a GCSE Spanish textbook and we decided we should bring the characters to life.

First, we wrote the script (see below), organised characters, costumes and sets and filmed it this week. For those of you may not fully understand the Spanish, here is a quick synopsis: Don Marcos has recently married Lucía (her fifth husband) but Yolanda, the housekeeper's daughter wants to know who her father is. Meanwhile, Lucia's ex-husband Ramón has moved in across the street to spy on them as he wants Lucía back. He tells Lucía that Don Marcos is Yolanda's father and then the situation gets more complicated when Lucía's son, Hugo, arrives with his new girlfriend (but Yolanda has secretly been in love with him for a long time). We won't spoil the ending!

Thanks to Ella for putting the film together in such a professional way. Enjoy!

<https://youtu.be/mEPfDBRIH3E>

This was a great way to learn more Spanish and celebrate the end of our first year of GCSE. Who knew it could be so much fun? Adiós, amigos.

Mrs Fiona Wilson and the Lower 5 Spanish group

La Calle de Intriga (The Street of Suspense)

En la casa de Don Marcos. Entra Mariela y Don Marco.

M: Yolanda quiere saber ( know) quién es su padre.

DM: No puedes decírselo. (You can't tell her)

M: Merece saber. (She deserves to know)

DM: Lucía, mi mujer, me mataría ( would kill me)

Yolanda (to M): ¿Es verdad? ¿Es mi padre? ¡Papá!

M: Sí (at same time) DM: No.

Casa de Ramón

Ramón: ¡Tramposo! (Cheat!). Lucía merece mejor. ¡Esta es mi oportunidad! (Sale- he exits)

En la piscina:

Lucía: ¡Ay, no! ¡Déjame en paz! (leave me alone!)

R: Pero cariño. Es muy importante. Escucha.

En la casa

( to Y): Lo siento. Quería decírtelo, pero es mi jefe ( boss).

(Entra Lucía) L: ¡Mentiroso! (liar!) Lo sé todo (I know everything!)

DM: ¿Qué? (What?)

(Entra Ramón): ¡Yo!

DM: ¡Tú! (fight- una lucha) (L/Y ¡No! ¡Para! Stop!)

Entra Hugo y su novia: ¿Qué pasa? (What's happening?)

L: ¿Quién eres? (a la novia)

Novia: Isabel. La novia de Hugo (Yolanda llora más- cries more)

L: ¿Eres rica?

Hugo: Mamá. No es el momento.

High School & Sixth Form

R: ¡Vamos, Lucía! ( Let's go ..) Mereces mejor que este idiota.

L: Pero nunca te he querido ( I've never loved).

R: ¿Qué? (tiene la pistola- apunta a DM) Todos gritan. ( all scream )

Entra la familia Menéndez: Buenos días. Somos los vecinos nuevos.

