

Bog Baby

This week in English, Transition have been reading the wonderful story of Bog Baby!

We have investigated when to use exclamation marks and practised writing speech bubbles.

The children used clay to make their own fantastic Bog Baby models and learnt all about adjectives to allow them to write some amazing descriptions of their creations.

Well done, Transition - you've done some fantastic work.

Mrs Heather Hallam and Miss Beth Hayter