

Art - portraiture

Simrit in Upper 5 has been exploring the theme of her family's heritage and culture through painting portraits of her family members across the generations. She has been developing her ideas through experimenting with painting and drawing techniques, whilst studying the works of Stephanie Ledoux and Ant Carver. Her juxtaposition of bold colours, graffiti and controlled realism are combined to create these beautiful, layered portraits.

Inspiring work Simrit!

Mrs Della Harrison