

Lower 3 take us on a tour...

A lovely time has been had by Lower 3 where my set is reading 'The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe'. We have already had sampling of Turkish Delight just as Edmund does when he encounters the White Witch and then I asked the pupils to imagine themselves in an old house full of "long corridors with many doors". We undertook a spooky walk in the Dower House to help us imagine what it must be like.

Following our experiences, each pupil pretended to be Mrs McCready (the housekeeper in our novel) and gave a tour of the house to interested sightseers. Monologues completed, pupils were invited to act out the tours. "Good fun" and "Let's do it again" were the verdicts from Lower 3.

Congratulations to the pupils who created some very funny historical facts with which to entertain the 'visitors', including some amusing anecdotes about Henry VIII.
