

Lower 3 start learning about living things

Lower 3 pupils have started their science discoveries by learning about living things. They have looked at what it means to be 'living' and have explored what scientists in the past used to classify organisms.

We decided to commemorate the scientist's work by growing a plant cutting to symbolise our progress in science lessons. We're still brainstorming names, so please share your suggestions!

Mr Ali Bahcaci