

Lower 5 debate the death penalty

This week, Lower 5 religious studies pupils have taken part in a formal debate on the motion that 'Britain should bring back the death penalty'. They have researched evidence and presented opening speeches related to the motion and then had a time of rebuttal in which they tackle each other's points. The debate was done in a very professional manner and arguments were made forcefully but respectfully. All the more impressive was the way the pupils were able to present very persuasive arguments for a position they did not hold themselves having been put into groups and told which side they would be arguing. Well done to Gio, Ishy, Fran, Safaa, Imogen, Jasmine, Maisy, Bella and Beth. Feel free to continue the discussion with them if you see them around school!

Mr Daniel Reeves