

Sixth Form Events Committee planning

The newly convened Sixth Form Events Committee have certainly had their work cut out with the commencement of the Halloween sleepover planning. After last year's haunted house escape rooms in the Old Vic they needed to go one better. Therefore, this year we are holding a murder mystery event entitled 'Terror in Transylvania'. Whilst it is early days there are guaranteed surprises, shocks and lots of fun.

If that is not enough, they are also exploring the potential Christmas activity events; it's going to be a busy few weeks.
