

Bonkers for conkers

This week we have been going “ bonkers for conkers “ we have had so much fun outside looking for conkers on a conker hunt, collecting them, weighing them and painting with them. The children have been counting with them and enjoying rolling them outside on drainpipes. We have been discussing the life cycle of a conker and where it comes from.

Mrs Laura Traynor