

Autumn tales

Children in Upper 3 have been using their senses to create descriptive writing pieces about Autumn. They planned their ideas using a senses mood board and from there, they looked at adjectives, adverbs and nouns associated with the time of year. They produced a range of written forms, including poems and narratives. Here are a few of the pieces they created. The work featured above is by Delilah, Elizabeth and Sadie.