

Pre-Reception - Remembrance

This week in Pre-Reception the children have been getting very creative with spectacular firework displays, raging fires and wonderful paintings of poppies. We discussed why we wear a red poppy which in turn sparked conversation of remembrance and hope for a peaceful future.

The children used their wonderful imagination and props provided to carry out role play in the doctor's surgery.

Have a lovely weekend.

Mrs Debra Wellings