

The festive spirit

Preparations are in full swing for our Early Years Nativity – Away in a Manger. The children are performing with such enthusiasm and are using their big loud voices to say their lines. Everyone is very excited for parents to watch. As part of these preparations the children have written their own invites for the Nativity and a special golden ticket is on its way.

Mrs Fiona Watford