

Upper 1 learn how to write direct speech

The children in Upper 1 have started learning how to punctuate direct speech. We used some furry friends to help us create some speech bubbles and then turned these into carefully written sentences using inverted commas. Some of the puppets had quite a lot to say!

Mrs Kate Foster