

Photography workshops

This half term we welcomed the award winning photographer David Gilliver to Gateways. He held two popular workshops exploring the art of light painting. Our GCSE photography pupils, as well as aspiring Upper 4 photography pupils, joined the workshops to learn how Gilliver captures his images using various fascinating pieces of equipment and the use of a long shutter speed. The pupils were able to use the different light sources and work together to create their own fabulous works of art.

Mrs Catherine Fairclough