

Cup phone experiment

Lower 2 have started their new topic - sound.

We have started to look at vibrations and how sound waves can travel. This week, the pupils made their own paper cup phones and were able to talk to their classmates through vibrations. They really got involved in the task and had a lot of fun conversations!

Mr Charlie Grasby and Miss Kirk