

Lower 4 have a hair raising experience

The atmosphere has been 'electric' in our physics laboratory this week as the Lower 4 physics pupils began their study of static electricity. They charged a range of objects including balloons, pieces of paper and ping pong balls before using our Van de Graaff generator to charge themselves and make sparks fly!

Mrs Andrea Westhead