

An Easter treat!

Transition have worked extremely hard over the last term and especially in the last couple of weeks.

Mrs Hallam and I decided that the children deserved a little treat and we decided that making Easter nest buns was a perfect way to reward them!

The children worked in teams to break the chocolate, stir the mixture, add the cornflakes and decorate their creations. The buns turned out amazingly! We hope you got to try one!

Mrs Heather Hallam and Miss Beth Hayter

Prep School

GATEWAYS
SCHOOL

