

Budding gardeners

In science, Lower 1 have been learning all about plants. They have looked at different types of seeds and bulbs, how plants grow and what they can be used for. The children have enjoyed exploring the school grounds looking for different varieties of plants and using their observational skills in lessons. They have enjoyed growing their own sunflowers and are taking great care of them - take a look above at how well they have cared for them!

Miss Beth Adamson and Miss Charlotte James