

Pre-Reception become scientists

This week in Pre-Reception we have continued learning about space. Our focus story was 'The Smeds and The Smoos' where we discussed colour mixing. The focus activity has been exploring colour mixing with blue and red.

The children have been learning all about science and loved taking part in different experiments. One experiment involved making giant bubbles which the children thoroughly enjoyed.

Have a lovely weekend everyone.

Mrs Laura Traynor