

Den building club

We made a roaring start at den building club. The children worked in two teams to make a suitable den to keep them dry from the rain! I think you will agree they are pretty good. One of the dens had a sofa made from tyres, wood and pieces of material. The other den was completely waterproof. Well done!

Miss Sarah Ellison