

Lower 2 – teacher for a lesson

This week, in science, Lower 2 pupils had the opportunity to become a teacher for the day!

We have started a new topic 'The Digestive System'. We have looked at the three different types of animals, herbivores, omnivores and carnivores. Pupils were given this lesson to research an animal of their choice and learn all about its diet before presenting their findings back to the class.

Mr Charlie Grasby and Miss Emily Kirk