

Investigating magnetism in Lower 4

This week Lower 4 have begun their study of magnetism. They started by using magnets to identify magnetic materials. They then used iron filings to investigate the shape of magnetic fields. The group have worked with impressive precision to plot detailed magnetic field patterns around a bar magnet. Great work Lower 4!

Mrs Andrea Westhead