

Making our own habitats

This week, Lower 1 have been putting their learning into action! The children have used a wide range of materials to make their very own world habitats. They worked incredibly hard and creatively to make arctic, desert, ocean and forest habitats. The children have learned about the different plants and animals that we could find in each habitat and they thoroughly enjoyed making their very own living things.

Miss Beth Adamson and Miss Charlotte James