

Best wishes to Upper 5 pupils for their science GCSEs

On Tuesday Upper 5 triple physics pupils worked hard in their last lesson before study leave. I have been very impressed with the determination and focus of this group of pupils having taught them for the past three years. We marked the occasion with a Fleming's left hand rule group photo!

I wish them every success in the upcoming examinations.

Miss Kim Ashurst