

Film club - the sequel

Wednesday and Thursday lunchtimes have seen the return of film club. The first meetings consisted of curating the films for the first term. The pupils selected their own themes and discussed/debated the titles, ending up with a list of 10 films covering themes of back to school, Hallowe'en, random and Christmas.

We began with School of Rock, moved onto Wild Child and this week the horror fans amongst us enjoyed Ghostbusters (1984) to send us into half term with a few scares. The current number of members is 21, over two lunchtimes; we have a little more space for people to join though if they are not committed to other clubs on those days.
