

The Battle of Britain

In humanities this week, it was the battle of the RAF vs the Luftwaffe! As the Battle of Britain commenced, both sides worked to position their aircraft to attack or defend. It appeared the Luftwaffe were going to be victorious, winning the first round of dog-fighting. However, thanks to the introduction of radar, the RAF were able to place their fighters strategically, ready to 'scramble', and winning the overall battle, bringing victory to Britain.

Mrs Alex Arundale, Mr Matthew Hayes and Mr David Woodfine