

Lower 4 pupils begin their study of forces

Lower 4 pupils have been investigating the effect of different forces in their science lessons this half term. They enjoyed a circus of activities demonstrating the effects of air resistance, friction, gravity, magnetic and electrostatic forces.

Pupils are currently investigating the different variables involved in making a parachute. Next week we will be having a competition to build a parachute that falls the slowest!

Miss Kim Ashurst