

World Book Day activities

This week we enjoyed celebrating World Book Day. We all dressed up as our favourite characters from our favourite stories. The whole school gathered for a parade to show off our wonderful costumes. We also enjoyed doing some activities throughout the day all related to reading, including guessing which teachers were hidden behind the books!

Miss Charlotte James and Miss Aoife Pearce