

Double, double, toil and trouble!

The children in Lower 3 have been introduced to the work of William Shakespeare in drama this term. We have used some of our active storytelling skills to get to know the story, hotseat characters and bring scenes to life.

This week the children have looked in more depth at the three witches and attempted to perform The Witches' Chant, reciting some of Shakespeare's lines and adding their own movements and interpretation. Scary stuff!

Ms Kate Stewart