

Peg person challenge

Our Spring humanities competition this year was the 'peg person challenge'. Children from Reception to Lower 3 were invited to decorate a peg person to resemble a historical figure and the response was fantastic.

Deciding on the winners and runners-up was a very difficult job and all who entered should be incredibly proud of their efforts, all of which are on display by the humanities library in Youngers.

Romilly from L1P won the Reception and Key Stage 1 category with her wonderful Madonna and Child, with Alice from L1J's excellent Tim Peake claiming the runner-up spot.

In the Lower Key Stage 2 contest, Harper from L1K secured first prize with her amazing diorama that included Henry VIII, all six of his wives and his dog! Florence from U1S came second with an impressive Ancient Egyptian scene.

Finally, Poppy from U2C romped home in the Upper Key Stage 2 category with her uncanny depiction of Pablo Picasso, with Don from L3's charming Mohandas Gandhi coming in a very close second.

Well done to all of those who entered!
