

Upper 3 musicians take to the great outdoors!

We like to make the most of our beautiful surroundings at Gateways and last week I needed to divide my class into groups for a practical task. As there was lots of musical activities taking place in the music terrace, one of the class suggested going outside! It was a wonderful idea and the pupils really enjoyed making music in the sunshine.

Mr Ian Lenihan