

Upper 3 investigate neutralisation

Upper 3 have been learning about acids and alkalis in their chemistry lessons this term. After working with indicators, the pH scale and reactions of acids and alkalis, pupils were set the challenge of using their knowledge to create solutions with as many different pH values as possible. The class gathered their chemicals, conical flasks and pipettes and armed with universal indicator charts, set about creating solutions which were all the colours of the rainbow!

Mrs Andrea Westhead