

Piet Mondrian art

In recent art lessons, Lower 1 have been exploring the work of renowned artist Piet Mondrian, focusing particularly on his piece Trafalgar Square. Inspired by his bold use of primary colours and geometric shapes, the children created their own artworks in his style.

We're sure you'll agree that their finished pieces look fantastic!

Mrs Charlotte Slater, Miss Beth Adamson and Miss Aoife Pearce