

Pottery painting in Transition

On Thursday, Laura from Puffin Pottery in Otley came to the school to run a pottery painting workshop with the children.

Each child was given a mug to decorate, and they were encouraged to use their imagination and creativity to do so. All the children worked so hard on their mugs and everyone produced some fantastic work! We now have to wait 10 – 12 days for the mugs to be fired and we will see the final products.
